4. On January 28, 2026, Defendant obtained approval to appear virtually for the January 29, 2026 Show Cause Hearing. See Exhibit A

5. On January 29, 2026, counsel for Defendant appeared virtually for the Hearing wherein Plaintiff's Motion to Video Record; Notice of Audio Recording was granted and Defendant's Motion to Continue was granted.

6. Counsel for Defendant, along with Defendant witness, Afshan Peimani, Chief Counsel, Industrial Commission of Arizona, request to appear virtually for the continued March 9, 2026 Show Cause Hearing.

7. Counsel for Defendant seeks to appear virtually in order to minimize the cost and expense incurred by his client, a governmental agency.

8. Additionally, on March 5, 2026 Defendant's witness Afshan Peimani advised she is currently sick and requested to appear virtually at the March 9, 2026 hearing both for her convenience and in order to avoid exposing others to illness.

9. Defendant asserts that no party will be prejudiced or otherwise inconvenienced by allowing counsel and its witness to appear virtually. Both counsel and the witness have the requisite technology and equipment.
