12 Eli Dalton-Webb, 13 14 Plaintiff 15 16 v. 17 18 INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION, et al., 19 20 Defendants 21	Case No. CV2025-035545  Assigned to: Hon. Michael Mandell  URGENT  MOTION TO VIDEO RECORD; NOTICE OF AUDIO RECORDING

23 This case before this Court is a high-profile case. It will determine whether or 24 not the public has a right to observe workman's compensation proceedings. It has the 25 massive potential to seriously expose the inner-workings of the Industrial 26
27 Commission.
28
29

30
31 As such, The Public has the right to observe this very high-profile proceeding.

32
33 Plaintiff's friend, David Morgan, is a well-respected news reporter from 34 Cochise County. Plaintiff and David Morgan would like to video record the oral 35
36 argument, that is to be held on 29 January 2026.
37
38
39

40
41
42 Plaintiff hereby moves this Court to permit video recording the proceeding,
43
44 pursuant to Arizona Supreme Court Rule 122. This will likely be screen recording the 45
46
47
48

1 video conference and/or a cell phone on a stand video recording the proceeding in-
2
3 person.

4
5 Plaintiff further notifies the Court that the proceeding will be audio recorded,
6
7 pursuant to Arizona Supreme Court Rule 122(h).
8

9
10 Plaintiff acknowledges that Arizona Supreme Court Rule 122(j) states “...No
11
12 video...that is obtained pursuant to this rule may be used to modify or supplement the 13
14 official court record...”.

15
16 Order proposal is attached.
